THE NEW ANTI- SEMITISM

In Sonoma County, unless you are on a college campus, we experience anti-Semitism and hate speech mostly secondhand, through online channels. Elsewhere, our fellow Jews feel it firsthand: the anti-Semitic voicemails and swastika left at synagogues, the bombings of Jewish establishments throughout Europe and the Middle East, the rise of neo-Nazis and BDS.

Sixty-some years ago, Arab countries expelled a million Jews and much of the Jewish community was silent. Never again. Things are even worse now; even the UN Secretary-General acknowledges the New anti-Semitism.

On Sundays, come hear how the organizations devoted to keeping us safe are putting out the fires of the New anti-Semitism on campuses, in cities, and in the nations around the world.

Speakers are coming from organizations on the front lines of defense. Learn how to help put out the fires of intolerance and hate.
