

Sonoma County Tu B'Shevat 20-Chai! January 30, 2018 - 5:30 p.m.

Rejoice in regrowth and renewal!

Congregation Beth Ami invites you to join us for an evening of celebration, engagement, and rejuvenation as we embrace the awakening of the trees in Israel and the rebirth of Sonoma County.

In Partnership With:

Preschoolers will experience the joy of Tu B'Shevat through stories, games, crafts, and more as we celebrate the birthday of the trees with our special friends from PJ Library!

Our K-6th graders will delight in the science of the season with experts from the Children's Museum. The "museum-on-the-go" will provide hands on experiments and exploration all about our environment.

WINERY

Adults can sit back, sip, and relax with a sampling of wines from this wonderful vineyard. Enjoy the traditional Tu B'Shevat fruits and nuts, learn a little about the winemaking process, and explore what the holiday is all about. (Juice will be available for non-wine drinkers).

AND PLEASE STAY FOR DINNER...

- * Gourmet Macaroni and Cheese
- * Kid-Style Mac-n-Cheese
- * Gluten Free Option Available
- * Garden Salad
