Stories I Must Tell You

A COLLECTION OF EVOCATIVE POETRY AND POIGNANT
SHORT STORIES

Please join us for an afternoon of poetry, memories, stories, book signing, refreshments.

Frieda Ferrick is a member of our greater Jewish community

She lives, writes and practices psychotherapy in Santa Rosa. We welcome Frieda as she returns to Congregation Beth Ami and thank her for sharing her newest book with us.

"As a therapist, a human being and a daughter of Holocaust survivors, I have been enthralled with the legacy of resiliency.

*"I have learned from watching my parents and their survivor friends travel their way out of hell and back into life. I was struck by their resiliency and even though they suffered and missed their families for the rest of their lives, they re-created themselves in a new country, had families,
jobs and celebrated weddings, anniversaries and Bar Mitzvahs.*

Join me as I travel from those times of World War Two to current times where I write about grief and loss, the whimsical and just about life."

Sunday,
June 26, 2-4 p.m.

There is no charge for this series,
sponsored by the Adult Education Committee of Congregation Beth Ami.
