Financial Assistance Request-2018-2019

Congregation Beth Ami is committed to helping our families provide a Jewish education for their children. Families who are currently experiencing financial hardship may apply for financial aid. Priority will be given to students in households that have experienced job loss, business failure, or loss of the primary earner's income during the last 6-12 months, to households with special needs that pose a significant financial barrier to participation in synagogue life, and to students in single parent families with financial need . If you are unable to pay some part of the tuition and are requesting assistance, please call Administrator Judy Gunnar at 360-3000. All submitted information will be kept confidential.

Beth Ami Religious School Parent or Grandparent Participation Opportunities

The success of our school depends on your participation! Parent involvement enriches our learning, helps our school function smoothly throughout the year and allows us to offer more programs for the children: holidays, Purim carnivals, tzedakah projects, plays, field trips and more.

We offer many opportunities to be involved both in the school's activities and in your child's Jewish education. Participation in the Religious School enriches your own experience through meeting other parents, building relationships, expanding their Jewish knowledge and feeling part of the life of this Jewish community. Please mark as many of the following as you can and return to the office. If you have more ideas, let us know. Thank you!

In the classroom:

- Assist in the classroom (organize snacks, assist with programs and projects, etc.)
- Present material based on your special skills and interests (Holidays, Torah Hebrew, Prophets, Tikun Olam, art, etc.)
- Hebrew reading practice or listen to children read Hebrew (requires basic Hebrew skills)
- Play an instrument to accompany class in songs or prayers
- Help with cooking, clean-up of Family Shabbat Dinners
- Assist your child's class during holiday events

Beyond the classroom:

- Serve on or Chair the Religious School Parent Committee (meets about 4-5 times a year)
- Coordinate or be a participant in fundraising activities
- Assist with our annual celebrations and holiday events
- Help prepare and display food/decorations for special school events
- Act as a roving photographer during RS activities (needed for publicity and in the Shofar)
- Plan and facilitate family programs with Programming Committee
- Support publicity and advertising for special events

Congregation Beth Ami
Emergency Comfort Kit for Your Child

Here in Northern California, we need to be well prepared for emergencies. Cong. Beth Ami Religious School needs your help to prepare a survival/comfort kit for your child which will be stored in a safe place.

We are sending home this emergency contact form for you to return no later than September 15, 2017. On a gallon bag, please write your child's name with a permanent pen. Please place the emergency contact form inside the bag with the info. facing out, and place as many of the following items as possible inside as well.

- ~2 small juice cans (please no boxes or glass),
- ~Dried fruit or fruit rolls in well-sealed packages,
- ~Vacuum packed cheese/peanut butter crackers,
- ~Unsalted nuts in well-sealed (or other non-perishable protein – non meat),
- ~Wastebasket size plastic bag (to be worn as a raincoat, hole cut for head),
- ~OPTIONAL: Small flashlight with battery or 12 hour life light, Chap Stick, towelettes, and a family photo. PLEASE do not overfill your child's bag!

Please do not include any items that cannot fit in the bag. Do not pack perishable items that might attract insects.

Thank you so much for your help in our preparedness!
