

Celebrate Israel with Israeli music, dance, and refreshments

SUNDAY, MAY 4, 2025

1:00—3:00 PM

Congregation Beth Ami

4676 Mayette Ave, Santa Rosa, CA 95405

The afternoon starts at 1:00 with a brief remembrance of those fallen to create and retain the Jewish Homeland followed by a transition into a celebration of Israel Independence with wisdom by CAMERA speaker, David Litman.

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER:

David Litman

Senior Research Analyst,
Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting and Analysis

Yom Ha'atzmaut! Zionism & Jewish Freedom: From Israel to American Campuses

David Litman covers anti-Israel bias both in the media and at institutions of higher education. David graduated magna cum laude from Case Western Reserve School of Law and holds a B.A. in International Studies.

David will discuss how major university campuses across the country have become toxic environments for student Zionists. Just as Jews are fighting for their rights in our indigenous homeland and celebrating freedom on Yom Ha'atzmaut, these student Zionists must fight for the right to be part of U.S. society.

The celebrations conclude with conversation, food and refreshment as we enjoy Israeli music and dance. (Join us in person and on Zoom).
